

Inkcups Now Opens South West Office and Offers Customer Support in Spanish

Inkcups Now Corporation announces the opening of Southwest Office in Tuscon, AZ, - the company's 5th direct sales location in North America. Southwest office employs a bilingual crew and offers technical support in English and Spanish for all company's customers.

Southwest office is run by Sales and Customer Support Manager Victor Uzarraga, who has 15 years of experience in screen printing and pad printing industries. "One of the company's major strengths is our people, highly technical, able to solve any problem," comments Ben Adner, ICN president, "Victor has worked as printing manager for years and can build machines himself – he knows printing inside out. We employ professionals and Victor is a merited addition to the team."

For more information please visit www.inkcups.com or call 978-646-8980.

